NOMINATE LOCAL VOLUNTEER HEROES TODAY

Member for Vacluse Gabrielle Upton MP today called on the local community to nominate prominent volunteers in the Vacluse Electorate as part of the new NSW Government Community Heroes Initiative.

Ms Upton said, “We are lucky to have so many generous individuals in our local area who contribute so much of their time and efforts to helping our community organisations, local clubs, sporting groups and businesses. Volunteers are quiet achievers, always displaying selfless acts of service.

“The NSW Community Heroes Certificates are one way we can show our appreciation to those volunteers as part of National Volunteer Week.”

National Volunteer week will run from 16 to 22 May 2022 with this year’s theme, “Better Together”, recognising the impact volunteering has in building and strengthening our local communities.

The 2022 NSW Volunteer of the Year Awards are also now open until 5pm, 17 June 2022. Volunteers can be nominated for one of eight categories including:

- Young Volunteer of the Year
- Adult Volunteer of the Year
- Senior Volunteer of the Year
- Volunteer Team of the Year
- Club Volunteer of the Year
- Employee Volunteer of the Year
- Volunteer Leader of the Year
- Not-for-Profit Voluntary Governance Award

If you would like to submit a nomination for a NSW Community Heroes Certificate for an individual who has been a prominent volunteer in the Vacluse Electorate community, please email vacluse@parliament.nsw.gov.au by 31 May 2022.
